An introduction to our library

Who we are

Bilton and Woodfield Community Library Group is a small charity, entirely run and managed by local volunteers; we have no paid staff.

In partnership with North Yorkshire County Council we provide a full library service in the Bilton and Woodfield area of Harrogate, for the benefit of the local community and everyone in north Harrogate and beyond.

We are open five days a week, and as well as book lending we provide audio book hire, local information, public computers, printing and photocopying. We run activities such as regular story times for pre-school children, and occasional craft and activity mornings for older children, and we host two book groups, and a scrabble group. We hold regular coffee mornings and a drop in IT help desk. We also act as a venue for drop-in surgeries. In partnership with My Neighbourhood and in conjunction with North Yorkshire’s Adult Learning Service, we have run beginners IT courses to help people access the various services available, and use social media to keep in touch.

Our book stock is constantly updated, thanks to the support of North Yorkshire Library Service, and so we always have a wide range of books and the newest releases. We have a particularly good selection of large print and crime books.

What our volunteers do

More than 50 volunteers help to keep Bilton and Woodfield Community Library up and running.

Our helpful volunteers are on duty to make sure the library is open to the public five days a week, taking on all the tasks needed, and are always there to help people using the library. In this reporting year over 400 volunteering hours per month were recorded. On average over 2100 books a month were issued, and the public computers were in use for approximately 100 hours per month.

Our volunteers are also involved in a programme of online training.
Most library users won’t meet our Steering Group volunteers, but they have the task of trying to make sure the library runs smoothly. This includes sorting out legal issues and building maintenance, organising and paying for utilities, phone bills, cleaning etc. They do all the charity’s paperwork, such as forms and policies required by law, as well as writing funding applications and organising fundraising activities. They have an overview of all that takes place in the library and liaise with many outside bodies. In addition, we have our Admin group who sort out volunteer rotas and make sure all volunteers are kept informed and can access training....and much more as well! Our Trustees are also volunteers and meet quarterly to discuss policy and strategy. These groups do not keep a record of the hours they work but a rough estimate is well over 1000 hours per year.

Our children’s group organises all the additional activities offered to children over the year. In this reporting year, our weekly story time was attended by over 600 children and 500 adults. Unlike the libraries run by North Yorkshire County Council, our story time is held throughout the holiday periods and is justifiably popular.

As well as organising the national Summer Reading Challenge, the Children’s Group organise various events throughout the year, including Saturday morning craft sessions. In June they organised a ‘Tribal Mask’ activity as part of book promotion month. During the summer holiday period they organised a ‘Zoolab’ session when various creepy crawlies visited the library. This was funded by B&WCL. The Reading Challenge theme was ‘Mischief Makers’ and the Children’s Group also arranged events to tie in with this.

Children’s activities in the library

One of our volunteers is the Library’s School Liaison and contacts and visits all the primary schools (8) in our area to promote and encourage reading and library use. Since we became a Community Library over 1700 children have made class visits with their schools when the library is normally closed. An amazing number by anyone’s standards.

All this takes considerable time and again these hours are unrecorded.
Everything in our library is done by volunteers, we have no paid staff.

How is the library paid for?

In 2018-19 our running costs were £8917, most of which were for building upkeep. Our charity is responsible for paying for all the costs associated with running the library, be it utilities, cleaning, insurance, equipment or consumables. All the income we receive from book and DVD charges goes directly back into paying for our library.

We have a dedicated group of volunteers who write funding bids, run book and plant sales, organise fundraising stalls at local events, hold quiz nights and do anything else they can think of to raise money!

Our income this year from grants has been significantly lower which led to a deficit of expenditure over income of £1014. This has been met from reserves. We cannot relax our fundraising efforts as our costs need to be covered every year. The Harrogate Lottery has proved a reasonable income and we are constantly urging more people to join and nominate us as their chosen charity.

We are incredibly grateful to the individuals, organisations and businesses who have supported us this year. Our grateful thanks go to North Yorkshire County Council, Harrogate Borough Council, Roots and Fruits, Woodfield Convenience Store, Pine Street Allotments Association, The Soroptomists and St John’s Church. We also received funding from the NYCC councillors locality budget.

Thank you to everyone who has donated their time or money to help keep Bilton and Woodfield Community Library open and providing a service to our local community.

In partnership with Harrogate Borough Council My neighbourhood Project we held our fourth Community Day in July. Once again this coincided with the launch of the Summer Reading Challenge, was a great success and enjoyed by all who attended.

Looking Forward

As in previous years our volunteers achieved a great deal this year, and we feel justifiably proud of ourselves. Bilton and Woodfield Community Library is highly regarded by North Yorkshire County Council, and by all the professional organisations that we come into contact with.

In 2019-20, we are aiming to exceed our target for numbers of visits by continuing to provide a wide range of activities and events. As well as the activities that our volunteers run, we will investigate new opportunities to provide education and training run by other organisations. We will also continue hosting community resources, such as drop-in surgeries, and provide a warm and welcoming venue for local people.

Our aim is always to improve on the previous year, whether in the numbers of children completing the Summer Reading Challenge, or the number of people making use of the computers that we provide. We can only achieve these aims however if we have public support. We are also planning to continue running our Community Day which is now considered an annual event.

Our biggest challenge is, and always will be, fund raising. We have set a budget for 2019/20 that requires us to raise £8275 to keep the library operational and because none of the funding that we secured last year can be guaranteed for future years, fundraising continues to be a priority.

Our plans to establish Bilton and Woodfield Community Library as a real community hub are continuing, as the number of visits shows. Our library is a vibrant and popular venue, much appreciated by the community. None of this could happen without the support of our partners, the local community and our volunteers. Long may we continue to flourish.

Significant decisions may be taken by the steering group or referred to the trustees. Trustees also review finances and performance in relation to the business plan objectives.

Trustees have put in place Terms of Reference for Steering and other groups.

Financial Review

Reserves Policy

Although the charity derives income from library charges (payments for overdue book returns, DVD loans, etc), to a large extent we depend on fund raising, both in the community and by attracting grants and donations from public bodies and philanthropic trusts. As the flow of such funds is uncertain, we need to establish and maintain some reserves to ensure that we can pay our bills and so continue to provide the library services for which we were formed.

Given the uncertainties in the coming financial year, and the fact that the charity provides a public service, the trustees have opted for a conservative reserves policy, allowing for 12 months of continued operation and allowing time for emergency fundraising should such a situation arise. The budget that has been set for the coming year allows for expenditure of £8275, this sets the reserve at £8275.

Trustee Responsibilities in relation to Financial Statements

Company law requires the directors (trustees) to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the income and expenditure of the company for the year. In preparing those financial statements, the directors (trustees) are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue on that basis.

The directors (trustees) are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities, as well as exercising proper financial controls.

Members of the Board of Trustees, who are Directors for the purpose of company law, and Trustees for the purpose of charity law, who served during the year and up to the date of this report are set out on page 9.
